

Mission Representative

Reports to: President Location: Based in Tennessee or regionally with travel Status: Part time or full time (supported missionary role)

Summary

The Mission Representative shares the story of EdenRidge with churches, ministries, and partners, opening doors for guest referrals, volunteer teams, and financial support. This role is ideal for a relational communicator who enjoys presenting, traveling, and connecting the body of Christ to a tangible place of rest and renewal.

Key Responsibilities

- Build and steward relationships with churches, pastors, mission leaders, and Christian businesses
- Schedule and deliver presentations, tabling, and weekend church visits
- Coordinate partner visits and tours at EdenRidge
- Cultivate volunteer teams for workdays and special projects
- Work with the Development and Marketing Teams to align messages and follow-up
- Track outreach activity and outcomes in the CRM
- Share guest testimonies and ministry impact stories with excellence and integrity
- Represent EdenRidge at conferences and networks

Qualifications

- Winsome communicator and natural connector who enjoys meeting new people
- Comfortable presenting to groups and hosting conversations with ministry leaders
- Organized and consistent with scheduling, notes, and follow-up
- Able to travel and work some weekends for church engagements
- Alignment with the mission and Statement of Faith of EdenRidge

Compensation

This is a supported missionary position. Compensation is provided through personal support raising, part time or full time options available. EdenRidge's no-fee structure means that while missionaries raise their own support, no administrative fee is deducted.

How to Apply

Send a resume, brief testimony of your faith and calling, and a short video or audio sample of you presenting or introducing EdenRidge's mission to office@edenridge.org.